Dear Mr. Lauder:

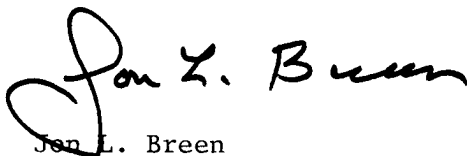

Thank you for your note and supporting material which was forwarded to my attention. I find nothing in that material which alters the opinions expressed in the editorial in question. I do, however, thank you for your attention to opinions expressed in The Telegraph.

STAT

While on subject of accuracy, your files should now show that Mr. Hamblett, to whom your communication was addressed, is no longer the president of The Telegraph Publishing Company, nor has he been for approximately five years. Enclosed is a photocopy of a page from the current Editor and Publisher Yearbook with the most recently published list of officers and staff.

Again, thank you for your attention and your interest.

NASHUA TELEGRAPH
P. O. Box 1008
Nashua, NH 03061

Dear Mr. Hamblett:

The TELEGRAPH's 26 September 1986 editorial "Let the CIA Decide?" came to my attention. A copy is attached.

This editorial misrepresents Mr. Casey's views on the relationship between national security and the media. Also attached is a copy of Director Casey's interview with the "Washington Journalism Review" in July which deals with this problem. I hope you and your staff will find it of interest.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "George V. Lauder".
